

使用指南:

大家打印出语法改错 400 句的题目版，以及答案版，自己先阅读题目，划出错误，做完一页，再看答案，这样可以提高对语法错误的敏感度。

为了避免影响同学们的思路，我们在题目版中去掉了问题的具体类别。大家可一并在答案版中查阅。

—

1. Sort and recycle waste would decrease pollution.
2. Study some difficult subjects can allow students to live a successful life in the future.
3. Young people study abroad can find work easily.
4. Children imitate criminals have behavioral problems.
5. The government support the good students from poor families can help them continue the university education.

—
—

This causes global temperatures rise.

1. Governments take more actions to prevent crimes can have a deterrent effect on offenders
2. Limiting children's screen time can cause children maintain enthusiasm for studies.
3. Surfing the Internet can help old people do not feel isolated and lonely.
- 4 Fashion shows have attracted a large number of people concentrate on the latest trend.

5 people should pay attention to develop positive qualities and acquire more practical experience.

三

1. A person who pays more attention to his achievement will cause lots of arguments in his working life.
2. Young people at school not only acquire knowledge but also regulate their behaviors.
3. Poor people will be able to narrow the gap between them and the rich.
- 4 Well-educated people can improve social productivity.
- 5 companies relying on technology and machines can enhance the quality of products.

四

1. This policy has positive effect on companies.
2. First of all, people from disadvantaged background are not willing to spend money on environmentally friendly product.
3. Books、films and the internet have provided people with opportunity to learn about other cultures.
4. There are some actions school should take to make education more interesting and practical.
5. Manufacturer should provide more products to support people.

五

1. Heavy workload is another reason why young people feel less happy than before.
2. People in rural area can sell handicrafts and fresh produce online.
3. These social media platforms can provide them with a very convenient way to maintain strong relationship.
4. Tourists from developed country may find it difficult to adapt to local environment.
5. There is no doubt that hotel and restaurant industry has been growing rapidly.

六

1. It is not easy to find a full-time employment.
2. Students will have a bad academic performance and do not have confidence.
3. People from deprived backgrounds have opportunities to have access to a high-skilled work by studying specialized knowledge.
4. Poor students are able to have an equal access to education.
5. Teachers can receive a specialised training to learn how to teach students effectively.

七

1. For example, people who work in large cities or overseas can have higher pay and fulfil their potentials.

2. Some young people can receive trainings.
3. If deprived students obtain economic aids from others, they may understand the importance of giving and form a positive attitude toward life.
4. it is wise for them to reduce pollutions in order to avoid the tax.
5. Teachers provide children with academic supports at school, while parents play an essential role in developing children' creativity

八

1. visitors find it hard to talk with hotel staffs
2. News medias, including magazines and the internet, have shown people a lot of beautiful patterns of clothes.
3. Mothers can use boiling water to disinfect everything to protect children from bacterias.

九

1. People today have wider access to a variety of information due to the development of information technology.
2. People can gain diverse knowledge by learning history to advance their career.
3. In the modern world, people spend a few time on doing exercise although it is known that exercise is essential to their health.
4. Children from poor homes have few opportunity to receive education.
5. One of the biggest problem of education is that it can cost a lot of money.

6 It will cost numerous money.

7 Employing similar quantity of men and women in all position is not beneficial to a company's development

8 living in small family units makes people have fewer contact with their relatives

+

1. Excellent athletes might not suffer as much as health problems as ordinary people.
2. Governments can provide special funds to protect languages which are only spoken by limited amount of people

十一

1. These knowledge is important to students.
2. The government should invest money in another public welfare.
3. Most children are not able to understand those international news on television
4. Other benefit of using hi-technology is that poor people have more opportunities to earn money

十二

1. Learning can be personalised to help the students.
2. As a result of it, they do not finish the homework and do not go to the school.
3. We can acquire the knowledge by reading books.

-
4. Though mechanical farming has improved the productivity, actually it has an adverse impact on the economy of the rural community.
 5. Crime can pose a threat to the social stability.

十三

1. News media are a important influence on the public.
2. An decreasing number of people speak local languages.
3. People in these fields deserve a higher salary because a outstanding person needs talent to succeed.
4. The proportion of males saw an significant decrease to 43.2%.
5. A engineer who is well-informed about all theories about different mechanical problems can design and improve machines.

十四

1. Workers try to upgrade skills to be a manager, salesman or designer.
2. Studying in another country enables students to become a more excellent person.
3. If an individual pays too much attention on their targets, they may be unwilling to work with others.
4. People could have a party with their friends to spend spare time.

十五

1. Machines enable to complete tasks efficiently.
2. Visiting to museums is beneficial to the protection of cultural heritage.
3. Most problems caused by a lack of money will eliminate
4. Some students may follow their friends to skip classes or addict to computer games.
5. Employers would not give these employees more opportunities to promote

十六

1. People can contact with their friends easily by using mobile phones.
2. Overworking may danger people's health in the long term.
3. They can analysis those events happening in other countries.
4. Authorities should make every one access to free tertiary education
5. Parents should company their children to go camping.

十七

1. It is common knowledge that fast food normally contain high fat.
2. Advanced technology have a detrimental impact on the environment.
3. Shopping on the Internet provide many choices for sellers and buyers.
4. The number of young offenders have increased dramatically.
5. The coverage of violent crime and sex assaults have an influence on viewers' behaviour.

十八

1. Those athletes who do not have a good mental attitude cannot perform well.

十九

1. Graduates will more easily to find a good job.
2. Reading will possibly broadening horizons.
- 3 People need to spend unnecessary time on road because of traffic jams, which may reduces their spare time and increases their negative mood.
- 4 People should to be friendly to each other and dress formally on these occasions.
- 5 To be specific, people can benefits from sharing information with others.

二十

1. The shortage of water is cannot attract worldwide attention.
2. They may do not have enough money to send their children to prestigious school.
3. Some people like the poor and the elderly may do not benefit from these modern communication tools.

二十一

1. Cultures are differ from country to country
2. Doing exercise regularly is very important to physical health, especially walking, but people are seem to walk less at present.
3. At present, most school are focus on students' exam grades.
4. It is also cause some problems and economic benefits.
5. Mechanisation may be have a positive effect on a country's economy.

二十二

1. Many people disagree this idea.
2. Participating extra-curricular activities can help students develop a wide range of skills.

二十三

1. Some students have chosen to study in farming.
2. The classroom provides with the atmosphere for learning.
3. Doing unpaid work and helping others can make people live in a happy life.
4. Governments should fund on films produced by domestic filmmakers.
5. Employers emphasise on qualifications because well-educated workers are innovators.

二十四

- 1 The government can encourage companies to involve in these industries.

二十五

1. The water consumption for agriculture was remained basically unchanged.
2. Those patients who suffer from fatal diseases are most benefited.
3. People can find good jobs when they are graduated.

4. Children have been become excellent communicators by learning communication skills at school.
5. Disadvantaged people are hardly show up.

二十六

1. People are easy to misunderstand local customs and habits.
2. Athletes might be more easily to suffer the pain caused by injuries in the rest of their lives.
3. The young generation often feel stressful because the cost of living is high
4. People now become lack of self-discipline
5. It is more effectively to attend lectures and listen to professors.

二十七

1. Children can interested in reading if they develop this habit from a young age.
2. People might also go into credit card debts and not able to financially support themselves
3. Parents may also responsible for their children's behaviours.
4. Those factories may less likely to dump toxic waste into rivers
5. Parents may not only able to experience an improved standard of living but also send their children to the best schools.

二十八

1. Paying taxes can prompt countries' infrastructure construction.
2. Libraries can allow more people having access to theoretical knowledge and help them to gain new skills.
3. Selling products, such as fresh produce, online can promote poor people to earn money.
4. Environmental problems can make people easier to get some diseases.

二十九

1. It is good to play sports games as leisure activities because it plays a vital role in improving public health.
- 2 The student learns to express himself meaning politely.

三十

1. Many young people have chosen to study abroad, they want to have a broad view of the world.
2. Education decides children's success in the future, the quality of it is also associated with the development of society
3. Incomes cannot meet the needs of life, these will put them under great pressure.
4. Old people can surf the Internet to assess the latest news, it means that they would not be out of touch the world.

-
5. Higher personal incomes allow people to purchase many products, including fashionable clothes, otherwise, they may think they are behind the times.

三十一

1. They can take good care of their family members, they also can enjoy happy time with their parents.
2. People have to work with a heavy workload, sometimes even have to work until late at night.
3. Players with a good mental attitude may overcome difficulties, thus win the championship.

三十二

1. We can tackle problems more logically and boost the development of our society.
2. Busy people may miss some important things in their lives and influence their work.
3. People can find relevant materials on the Internet and then improve their academic performance.
4. Acquiring knowledge in class is a rewarding learning experience and can receive lecturers' guidance
5. Cold water flows through hot rocks and turned into hot water.

三十三

-
1. Pollution became a serious problem.
 2. This is why many less-known languages became extinct..
 3. People spent time commuting on the road due to the traffic jams and less leisure time could increase people's negative emotions.
 4. When they completed a degree overseas, they could contribute to their country with knowledge.
 5. There are two main reasons why these people did not take any action.

三十四

1. Recently, many people are interested in spending enormously on special occasions.
2. There is an increase in the rate of youth crime these years.
3. In recent years, the work market is increasing competitive and a great number of graduates fail to seek employment when they are leaving schools.

三十五

1. Most developed countries have experienced environment challenges in the last century.

三十六

1. Library users have access to use computers and videos as educational resources.
2. We should spend more time for accompany our family .

-
3. People need to pay more attention to their family life, which is a key to make them happy.
 4. The writing skill is the key to present one's ideas, so it is necessary to acquire the basic knowledge of writing
 5. Teleworking has become a growing popular approach to run companies in the world.

三十七

1. Men prefer to talk about advance career.
2. Cities are growing with more and more people come to cities
3. Despite the investment in rare language is of great importance to preserve language diversity, this can increase pressure on tax payers.
4. The proportion of people went to the cinema decreased.
5. Despite that the young generation can solve some problems by themselves, they also need others around them to aid them in achieving their goals.

三十八

1. In particularly, people working at office usually travel to and from work by car rather than by foot or bicycle.
2. Urban life has an adverse impact on people's healthy.
3. They can use theoretical knowledge into practical in the workplace.
- 4 To increase ratings as well as expand the readership, news organisations may not be trustworthy in sometimes

三十九

1. One solution of this problem is to raise children's awareness of resource conservation.
2. The main reasons of this issue include the lack of environmental awareness and the poor access to waste disposal facilities.
3. Travelling abroad is also helpful to practice travellers' languages.
4. Playing sports games can cultivate a sense of responsibility and the ability of solving problems

四十

1. Well-educated people can settle conflicts easier.
2. Modern communication methods enable us to communicate across countries more convenient.
3. People buy many cars and use cars excessive. .
4. The available of information and learning resources can bridge the income gap.
5. Some travelers drop litter careless, and they should be punished.

四十一

1. It is more easy for teenagers to get good grades in one subject they are good at.
2. The government only supports best students without considering the needs of disadvantaged young people.

3. People can surf the web for latest news reports.

四十二

1. Communication has become more easily.
2. If we spend time helping our neighbors, we may feel easily to go on well with each other.
3. The proportion of men saw a steadily increase to 46.7%.

四十三

1. Representing the unique and valuable asset of a country's culture and history, the government has the responsibility to protect the minority languages from extinction.
2. By helping the old, the disabled and the homeless, community cohesion can be enhanced
3. When visiting beaches and hiking in forests, it is not allowed to drop litter or damage plants.
- 4 A minor mistake may cause serious problems when setting up a business.

四十四

1. When come to school age, most children spend most of the day in their school with their teachers and classmates.
2. Young girls feel they lose face if do not wear lavish clothes.
3. Advanced technology provides opportunities for the people from disadvantaged families to earn money, although sometimes create greater wealth for the rich.
4. As the increasing of people's income, they have more money to buy the latest styles.
5. It is hard for you to accumulate working experience and sharpen your skills when you doing temporary jobs
6. There is no need to kill animals , because the invention of synthetic materials which can produce drugs and clothes.

四十五

1. Young people are more willing to adopt advanced technology. Because they want to find jobs in the hi-tech industry.
2. Because employees are likely to move to a different home, which is close to the company, instead of remaining living in the city center.
3. Because athletes have strong muscles, and they may run faster.

四十六

1. The academic performance will not be improved if they are suffering from problems

2. People could learn the dress code and business practices of companies when they are communicating with local workers.
3. It is difficult to maintain contact with our family when we are living far away.
4. When an athlete fell behind others in a marathon, he or she should not give up.

四十七

1. Others claim that nothing can we gain from learning history.
2. I suppose that because with the development of the economy, we have more choices in clothes.
3. Although free public transport may reduce traffic congestion, I do not agree that improve 24 hour bus services is a good idea.
4. Many industries, especially those in the hospitality industry, thrive because of Olympics Games. So that the economy will develop.
5. It is very important that keeping with what is happening through reading news.

四十八

1. People argue that whether the advertising of certain food products should be banned.

-
2. This diagram shows that how a small town in the UK developed between 1990 and 2010.
 3. The debate about that whether digital books will replace printing books has been heightened.
 4. People have an argument about that students should attend university or start working.
 5. I believe whether learning in a classroom or studying alone can benefit learners.

四十九

1. They can do something what they like, and do not need to obey company rules
2. Visitors may buy things what they dislike

五十

1. It can develop into a worse situation that students have mental problems eventually.
2. There is a trend that people are pursuing fashion these days and they are fond of buying clothes.
3. There is a phenomenon that the number of people cooking at home has fallen sharply.
4. Ambitious people may not be willing to share up-to-date information with colleagues, thus resulting in the situation that they cannot draw upon others' experience.、

五十一

1. There was a river crossed the area from north to south.
2. As we know, there are so many different cultures exist in the world.
3. There are some measures could be taken to help those young unemployed to find a job
4. I think there are two main reasons may contribute to this phenomenon
5. There are two problems affect tourists' attitude towards the host country.

五十二

1. There is many people who prefer to drive cars.
2. There is an increasing number of people who do not know how to cook.
3. There are many misleading information on the Internet
4. There is numerous people giving priority to work

五十三

1. The competition is increasingly intense so it is easy for people who occupied by work to ignore their family.
2. People who taking temporary jobs cannot gain work experience and achieve succeed in their careers.

-
3. There was an increase in the percentage of people who employed by large companies.
 4. Those people who equipped with different skills can adapt to different jobs
 5. These days many people who from rural areas migrate to big cities

五十四

1. Governments can invest in building towns and cities, from which people can benefit more.
2. By taking on part-time jobs, universities students can learn skills which cannot get at university.
3. Governments can also build new schools and hospitals in suburban areas which can solve some basic needs of residents
4. Some governments today pour money in building many libraries in towns, which enables more people to read books and acquire knowledge.
5. people are able to get information that they need on the internet, which is more convenient compared to go to libraries.

五十五

1. A growing number of companies are now considering telecommuting, which let employees work at home.
2. The private health care charges high fees, which excludes disadvantaged people from the services.
3. They are always looking for the jobs which is suitable for their dreams .
4. Anti-social behaviour is the action that pose a threat to society.

5. People who has a strong desire to advance their career may put themselves at the risk of illness.

五十六

1. The government can offer tax reductions for those companies who have performed well in recycling solid waste.
2. Of those fast-growing countries, China, which economy has been growing at 9 per cent per year, is particularly successful.
3. There are plenty of natural resources in China, most of that are unused.
4. Polytechnics and other institutions can provide training in car repairing, building and hairdressing and all of which enable young people to earn money earlier.

五十七

1. Buying luxuries can cost a lot of money which affects their living standards.
2. Young People need to adjust mentality which influence their emotions and actions .
3. The media have drawn our attention to Olympics which is a significant event for athletes.
4. Home cooking which used to be quite usual has become uncommon in many countries.
5. By talking to locals, tourists can improve social skills which can help with their performance in workplaces.

五十八

1. There are many foreign universities where provide good courses for international students.
2. Too many people moving to big cities from the areas where rely on agriculture will put extra pressure on infrastructure construction.
3. It is a platform that people can express opinions and get some useful information
4. They can run restaurants where sell traditional food to attract foreign visitors.

五十九

1. News media nowadays can deliver the latest news happened around the world to people.
2. We could donate money to poor people, making their lives happy and satisfied.

图表作文

六十

1. While the number of divorces saw a different trend, rising to around 1.5 million in 1980 and dropping to 1 million in 2000.
2. the number of marriages stood at 2.5 million in 1970 and 1980, however, it steadily decreased from 2.3 million in 1990 to 2 million in 2000.

六十一

1. South America makes up the highest proportion of world's coffee production
2. People in Turkey spent the highest proportion of national expenditure on food in 2002, accounting for 32.14%.
3. The number of females aged 45 to 54 exercising regularly was the highest, at 53.3%.
4. Financial reasons and employment were responsible for the 19% and 18% of the reasons why people chose to leave the UK.

六十二

1. The highest proportion of profit making of coffee is companies which are responsible for shipping and roasting, at 55%.
2. students who find employment were the highest proportion of Australian graduates in 1999 and 2000.
3. The proportion of students who were unemployed was the lowest

六十三

1. The figure for females who do exercise on a daily basis was lower than their male counterparts
2. Mechanization is a significant improvement in manufacturing because its accuracy is higher than us.