• Do you prefer bottled water or water from water machines?

— What? That's a super weird question. Um, bottled water or water machines ... well, honestly, I just feel that they're both water and um ... I don't suppose there's any difference between them. In fact, a water machine is just a bigger bottle.

• What do you like about your hometown?

—Nothing! There's nothing here that I really like. You might think I'm very weird, but honestly, I can't find anything that appeals to me - we've got air pollution, which is terrible; our traffic is always quite bad; we don't have enough shopping malls or cafes to hang out with friends. Sorry, I really can't think of anything I like in my hometown.

• Do you think parents should teach children to save money?

– Yeah, I think so. In fact, I do know that on/in the IELTS speaking test, there are tons of questions like this - should parents teach their children to cook, should they encourage their kids to read or do sports, so on and so forth. I feel that if you ask a question like that, the answer has to be “Yes”.

• Will you go to a place with a lot of sunshine in the future?

– Oh, I just came back. My wife and I went to Fiji on our honeymoon last month and ... it was sunny there every day. We would go out onto the beach and bask in the sun and um ... also, we would go snorkeling in the sea. It was a fantastic holiday. In the future, I guess we're going to Florida next year.
