Where it is

Where you go there

And how you feel about it

I'm going to say something about the city theatre which is located in northern part of my hometown. The first time I went to this city theatre was about a couple of years ago and it was a great experience. My father once told me that the city theatre used to be a factory building.

This theatre is often packed with visitors because it is fashionably designed and extremely clean. Visitors can find many kinds of flowers in the main hall such as begonia and lilac. I now go there several times a week with my close friends and we all like to watch our favorite music concerts there.

I think it is a great place because of something I saw during my first visit there. It was on a hot summer day. At that time I was walking through the corridor of the theatre. Suddenly I saw a big music shop not far away from me. After walking into the music shop, I saw many kinds of old CDs and some of them were priceless. Surprisingly, the shopkeeper told me that I could listen to most of them for free which was so incredible. I was stunned by his words. This theatre has become one of my favorite places now.
