Describe something important that you lost in the past

You should say

When this happened

Where you lost it

What it was

What you did after it was lost

And explain why it was important

I would like to talk about a toy robot that I lost. It was very cute and fashionable-designed. I lost it about two years ago, I only remembered that I put it on my bookshelf, suddenly it disappeared. I searched everywhere in my home but couldn't find it. The toy robot was a big surprise from my favorite table tennis player Zhang Jike and my brother told me that Zhang Jike used to be his classmate at primary school.

Let me tell you how excited I was when I received this toy robot and you will know why it is so important to me. It was on a hot summer day. At that time, I was celebrating my birthday with my whole family at home and I felt quite excited because I would get some gifts from the new visitors. Suddenly I heard a heavy knock on the door and I ran to open the door. Then I saw my favorite table tennis player Zhang Jike standing at the doorway. He was holding a beautiful box in his hand. He told me that it was my birthday gift. I quickly tore off the paper around the box and found it was a lovely toy robot. I really longed for it and couldn't help jumping for joy. I was so excited and that's why I felt so sad when I lost it. I wish I could get it back someday.

The good law I would like to talk about is “No smoking in public” which is a very important law in China. I realized how important it was in a music shop about a couple of years ago. I remember it was on a hot summer day. At that time I was walking through the corridor of the theatre. At that time I saw a big music shop not far away from me. After walking into the music shop, I saw many kinds of limited old CDs and some of them were priceless. Suddenly I smelled something unpleasant; a short and fat guy was smoking in the corner of the shop. Even though there was a big sign with “no smoking” on the wall, that guy was still smoking like he didn’t see anything. I was really pissed off and thought of the law “No smoking in Public” at that time, so I walked towards him and stopped him. He was really embarrassed and left the store at once. The air in the store became fresh again after he left and I could enjoy the beautiful time in that store after he stopped smoking. Until now, I still think this is one of the best laws in China and it is very important and useful!
