Thirty-Nine Steps is an adventure novel by John Buchan ,first published in 1915.

John Buchan(1875-1940),a writer and a government official of Scotland ,was born in England. He gained the scholarship of Glasgow University at sixteen years old and finished his doctorate of Oxford University. His productions are full of romance and adventure. During the World War I ,he became a reporter reporting battlefield's current affairs for Before the Army Times. Reporting these became a source of inspiration on writing , so John Buchan based on this historical background to write the very famous novel—Thirty-Nine Steps. When John Buchan saw her daughter counting the steps of the stairs , he chose Thirty-Nine Steps as book's name.

Now I want to introduce the story's summary. The protagonist is Hannay. He knew a little secret information of Black Stone, and was suspected to a murderer because American agent Sculdder died in his home ,so he was chased by policemen and Black Stone. When he is on his fugitive, many people helped him ,especially Sir .Walter .Black stone thought they won because they killed the Greek Prime Minister as the plan, but Hannay understood the clue in the Scudder's notebook at last .Through the clue, they found the base of the Black Stone and the police caught the members of Black Stone. So Hannay won .
