改完的第一段:

Many parents spoil their children, and because of this, children lack social norms and politeness. Parents rarely teach children to show respect to others and speak in a friendly manner. For example, they are not willing to share delicious food with family members and friends, while they enjoy eating this food themselves. As a consequence, they may become selfish and impolite after growing up, such as arguing with a parent.

老师这几天有点忙, 补了课, 只能改这一段了, 对不起, 不过我会努力学的。
