- Describe a special day that you remember well
- You should say
 - When it was
 - Who you were with
 - What you did
- And explain why you remember it well

- The time that I'm going to talk about is when I got together with my best friend, Luke. It was last year, sometime in June, I think, or early July. I don't remember the date very clearly now. Luke had moved to the US, to North Carolina, to be exact. He had lived there for two years and so we hadn't seen each other for two years. When he told me that he was coming back to China and we could meet up and catch up, I was over the moon.
- So, a little bit more about Luke. He is actually my colleague and we've known each other for 7 years, which is a long time. We've been best friends for that long as well.

- What we did ... um ... we got together and had a meal together. Over the course of the meal, we just chatted and ... did a lot of catching up. He told me a lot about his life in the US. One thing that caught my attention so well is that he had found the girl of his dreams there. He was doing some grocery shopping and a pretty girl bumped her cart into his. They chatted for a while and really hit it off. Now they're boyfriend and girlfriend. Of course, we talked much more than this.
- I remember that day really well mainly because Luke is my closest friend and I had missed him so much while he was gone. I was so happy to see him back, even just for a few days.

- Don't forget:

- better coherence

- ↓

- better fluency

- Is it easy to become beautiful?

- Well, my gut feeling is ... NO! But ... um ... let me think about it.
- Becoming beautiful is the dream of many people, that's for sure. It's not uncommon for people nowadays to take care of their skin, put on makeup every day, go to the gym in order to get in shape ... Some people even go through surgery to look prettier.
- So to answer your question, even though we still have to work towards beauty, I think it's much easier than ever before. After all, as long as we have the money, plastic surgery can help us become better-looking right away.

- What do you think of the sharing economy?
 - Um, what do I think about it? Well, I've never stopped to think about my opinion on this.
 - The sharing economy is a big thing now, right? It seems that in this day and age, many things that we're familiar with are part of this economy. There's Didi in China, Uber in other countries, we have shared bicycles like Mobike.
 - Personally, I used to be a huge fan of Mobike and I would go anywhere close to my home on one of those bikes.
 - So um, I guess the sharing economy is pretty good; it does bring us a lot of convenience.

- Do leisure activities have to be educational?
 - That's an interesting question. I'm not sure about this. Do leisure activities have to be educational?
 - As we become richer and richer, it's true that we focus more and more on leisure, right? Some of the most popular pastimes in China are going shopping, going to the movies, doing tai chi, walking in parks and so on.
 - These are all pretty good activities, but it seems that none of those are educational.
 - So yeah, thinking about it, I don't suppose they have to be educational.
