STUDENT:	Yes . . . I have it here, ummm . . . 2237676, but I'm only there after about 7 pm.

STUDENT:	Studying English?
ADVISER:	And what would you say your level of English is?
STUDENT:	Umm. Good, I think I'd like to say 'advanced' but my written work is below the level of my spoken, so I suppose it's intermediate.	Q4
ADVISER:	Certainly your spoken English is advanced. Anyway, which area do you think you would prefer?
STUDENT:	Ummm, well I'm studying right in the centre but I'd really like to live in the north-west.	Q5
ADVISER:	That shouldn't be a great problem . . . we usually have lots of families up there.

Anything about your actual room?

I would prefer my own facilities – 'en suite', is that right? And also if it's possible a TV and I'd also like the house to have a real garden rather than just a yard, somewhere I could sit and be peaceful.

Q7

Is that all?

Well... I'm really serious about improving my English so I'd prefer to be the only guest if that's possible?

Q8

No other guests... Yes, you get more practice that way. Anyway, obviously all this is partly dependent on how much you're willing to pay. What did you have in mind?

I was thinking in terms of about £60-£80 a week, but I'd go up to a hundred if it was something special.

Q9

Well I don't think we'd have any problems finding something for you.

Oh, good.

And when would you want it for?

I'd like to move in approximately two weeks.

Let me see, it's the 10th today... so if we go for the Monday it's the 23rd March.

Q10

Yes.

Right... good, and if I could ask one last question...

Box Telecom

- Problems: been affected by
- drop in 21
 - growing 22

TUTOR: Right, Jason and Karin, now I asked you to look at the case study for Box Telecom as part of your exam assessment. It's interesting because they are in the middle of problems at the moment and I want you to track how they deal with them. Let's start with you, Karin. Having read through the case study, can you just summarise what the problems were that Box Telecom had to take on board?

KARIN: Um, yeah... Well of course what first came to their attention was that, despite a new advertising campaign, they were suffering from falling sales - and this is something that had many causes. On top of that immediate problem, what had also happened over the last two years was that, although they had invested in an expansion plan, they had to face up to increased competition. And, before they had a chance to get to grips with the effects of that, they were stalled by a strike and it was just when they were thinking about making a colossal investment in new machinery for their plants. So they were really in trouble. Q21, Q22

- Causes of problems:
- high 23
 - lack of good 24

TUTOR: Yes, I think that's fair. And Jason, you contacted the company, didn't you? What did the company define as the reasons for these problems?

JASON: Well, I think they've hit on the right things - it would be easy to say they had invested too heavily, or at the wrong time, but in fact the signs were good and what they were set back by was high interest rates. At the same time, their longer-term problems, which were affecting their market share, were eventually credited to poor training - and having looked at the details in their last report I think that's right. Q23, Q24

腾讯课堂独家直播

25 What does Karin think the company will do?

- A look for private investors
- B accept a takeover offer
- C issue some new shares

TUTOR: So, onto the larger issues then. Karin, what do you think the company will do?

KARIN: Hmm... Well, obviously they have the choice of accepting the very favourable terms that another company - KMG Plc- have given them to buy them out. That would mean creating a new company with a new image. Or they could decide on a bolder move and offer some new shares if they wanted. But I think they're much more cautious than that and expect they will start trying to find individuals who'd be prepared to back them with some of the capital they need. Q25

26 How does the tutor suggest the company can recover?

- A by appointing a new managing director
- B by changing the way it is organised
- C by closing some of its retail outlets

TUTOR: Well, you mustn't always assume that dramatic problems require dramatic solutions. Sometimes there's a simple fix such as changing the guy at the top. If they truly are cautious, then I suspect they will seek to shut down some of their shops. But a more ambitious approach, and one which I think would have more chance of success, would be to alter how they're running things - the management layers and the processes. So in your analysis try to think of all the options. Jason?

27 The tutor wants Jason and Karin to produce a report which

A offers solutions to Box Telecom's problems.

B analyses the UK market.

C compares different companies.

JASON: Yes, it's interesting because I've found it a really useful company to study. Its problems cross all types of industries and it's lucky it's so big - a smaller or even medium-sized company would have gone under by now.

TUTOR: Ah well in fact, what I want you two to do is to go away when we've finished our discussion today and write a report. We've looked in general at the telecommunications market in the UK over the last few sessions and I want you to take Box Telecom as an example and suggest some ways in which they might overcome their problems. And outline the reasons why you think as you do - but try and keep it intrinsic to the company rather than dragging in other examples. Is that OK, Karin? Q27

7-1-3 P.15

27 Janice believes managers should

- A demonstrate good behaviour.
- B encourage co-operation early on.
- C increase financial incentives.

TUTOR: So do you think being a good team player is overrated?
 JANICE: No, it's not overrated. You do need to learn the rules and learn them fast. No individual can get around this if you're working in an organization.
 TUTOR: So how should managers deal with this?
 JANICE: Rewards. When an individual demonstrates the behaviour the organisation expects, some kind of incentive can be given. What's important here is that this happens right at the beginning so new recruits learn the rules of the system immediately. Also the incentive should be something the individual actually wants, and this isn't always just money.

ED: It's been an interesting experience watching different versions of Romeo and Juliet, hasn't it?

GEMMA: Definitely. It's made me realise how relevant the play still is.

ED: Right. I mean a lot's changed since Shakespeare's time, but in many ways nothing's changed. There are always disagreements and tension between teenagers and their parents.

Q28

GEMMA: Yes, that's something all young people can relate to – more than the violence and the extreme emotions in the play.

GEMMA: Yes. That somehow intensified the emotion for me.

10-2-2

SECTION 2

Good morning. I'm very pleased to have this opportunity to say a little about two exciting new developments in the city: the Brackenside Open-Air Swimming Pool and the children's Adventure Playground in Central Park. As many of you may know, the idea for these initiatives came from you, the public, in the extensive consultation exercise which the City Council conducted last year. And they have been realised using money from the SWRDC – the South West Regional Development Commission.

Q11

First of all, Brackenside Pool. As many of the older members of the audience will remember, there used to be a wonderful open-air pool on the sea front 30 years ago but it had to close when it was judged to be unsafe. For the design of this new heated pool, we were very happy to secure the talents of internationally renowned architect Ellen Wendon, who has managed to combine a charming 1930s design, which fits in so well with many of the other buildings in the area, with up-to-the-minute features such as a recycling system – the only one of its kind in the world – which enables seawater to be used in the pool.

Q12

Now, there has been quite a bit of discussion in the local press about whether there would be enough room for the number of visitors we're hoping to attract, but the design is deceptive and there have been rigorous checks about capacity. Also, just in case you were wondering, we're on schedule for a June 15th opening date and well within budget: a testimony to the excellent work of local contractors Hickman's.

Q13

We hope that as many people as possible will be there on June 15th. We have engaged award-winning actress Coral White to declare the pool open and there'll be drinks and snacks available at the pool side. There'll also be a competition for the public to decide on the sculpture we plan to have at the entrance: you will decide which famous historical figure from the city we should have.

Part 2, Questions 11–20

PART 2

So, hello everyone. My name's Lou Miller and I'm going to be your tour guide today as we take this fantastic boat trip around the Tasmanian coast. Before we set off, I just want to tell you a few things about our journey.

Our boats aren't huge as you can see. We already have three staff members on board and on top of that, we can transport a further fifteen people – that's you – around the coastline.

But please note if there are more than nine people on either side of the boat, we'll move some of you over, otherwise all eighteen of us will end up in the sea!

Q11

We've recently upgraded all our boats. They used to be jet black but our new ones now have these comfortable dark red seats and a light-green exterior in order to stand out from others and help promote our company. This gives our boats a rather unique appearance, don't you think?

Q12

We offer you a free lunchbox during the trip and we have three types. Lunchbox 1 contains ham and tomato sandwiches. Lunchbox 2 contains a cheddar cheese roll and Lunchbox 3 is salad-based and also contains eggs and tuna. All three lunchboxes also have a packet of crisps and chocolate bar inside. Please let staff know which lunchbox you prefer.

Q13

I'm sure I don't have to ask you not to throw anything into the sea. We don't have any bins to put litter in but less myself or Ray, our other guide, will collect it from you after lunch and put it all in a large plastic sack.
