感兴趣的历史时期	TR: Task response: when talking about such a historical period, the first thing in my head is about the period of three kingdoms in my country, and the history can be dated back to almost 2000 years ago, and back then, China was divided into three major kingdoms called Cao Wei, Shu Han and Dong Wu; and after numerous fights and wars among these three kingdoms, the central kingdom was unified into a brand-new stage of dynasty. Description + personal opinion: I am so fascinated by this particular period of time for some reasons

	Since during that time, there were so many wisemen and warriors with wisdom, courage and loyalty; they presented so many interesting stories; when I was little, I read almost all of them; for example, the story of borrowing arrows with straw boat left me a lasting impression; and it comes like this, once a time, one side just realized that they didn't have enough arrows to win the war, and then a smart guy came up with a great idea to fake attack by thousands of small boats with scarecrows during a misty night, and then their enemy ate the baits to fire countless arrows towards those boats, and just like that, the smart guy successfully borrowed enough arrows they needed. (草船借箭) Similarly, there is another story called empty city trick 空城计; when zhugeliang realized that they didn't have enough soldiers to guard the city, he pretended to be confident by playing instrument on the top of the city's wall, and their enemy was fooled by believing that the city was full of traps and tricks, they got scared and pulled back the army, and the empty city was saved. That's why it is those figures and stories that enriched our history and characters, and I am so impressed.
