主体段落一： On the one hand, hosting sports event is a way to show the image of a city to the world.

It is a large-scale event that can grasp the world's media attention, which enables the city to receive enormous amounts of publicity. As a result, the stadiums and the cultural heritages are exposed to all, which can then appeal to more people and thereby boost tourism and convey national culture.

主体段落二: On the other hand, the expense of hosting sports events can dwarf the benefits. the events are funded by the public sector who raise money from taxpayers, and the early investment is huge in amount because stadiums, Olympic parks and infrastructure are expensive to construct which need large capital expenditure. Therefore, having realized that the events cannot benefit the general public at all, many taxpayers think that it is not worthwhile.

主体段落一： Indeed, when it comes to social stability, education plays a more crucial role than arts.

Undeniably, through access to education, individuals can not only acquire a wide range of knowledge and professional skills which are essential for employment but also learn how to distinguish right from wrong, which can reduce the risk of criminality. By contrast, the exposure to arts cannot directly help people to be employable. Thus, for the public, the investment in education should be given as the priority. arts are an important reminder of national history.

主体段落二： However, it does not mean that the investment in arts is meaningless because arts can positively contribute to mental health which is also one key factor for social stability. In fact, arts are used in a variety of ways to heal emotional injuries, increase understanding of oneself and others as well as change behaviors and thinking patterns, such as music engagement, visual arts therapy, expressive writing and so on, because arts provide an access for people to express their negative feelings and emotions. As a result, the healing power of arts can prevent people from committing extreme behaviors.

主体段落三： Moreover, arts can facilitate education. A good example of this would be the countless paintings of historic events and key figures that became prominent and fashionable during the Renaissance. These pictures now deepen not only our understanding of those events but also the extensive knowledge about culture, lifestyles, and the minds of people at that time. It is therefore likely that arts give important clues to future generations as to a wide range of areas in a vivid form.
