例题：OG Argument 官方题库第19题

The following appeared as part of an article in the travel section of a newspaper:

“Over the past decade, the restaurant industry in the country of Spiessa has experienced unprecedented growth. This surge can be expected to continue in the coming years, fueled by recent social changes: personal incomes are rising, more leisure time is available, single-person households are more common, and people have a greater interest in gourmet food, as evidenced by a proliferation of publications on the subject.”

Discuss how well reasoned ... etc.

无理假设类错误攻击体系

The author falsely depends on gratuitous assumption that _____. However, no evidence is stated in the argument to support this assumption. For example, it is most likely that _____. Therefore, the argument is unwarranted without ruling out such possibility.
