- A) unrealistic.
- B) conflicted.
- C) apprehensive.
- D) supportive.

词汇题强化练习2

This frequent experience of gift-giving can engender ambivalent feelings in gift-givers. Many relish the opportunity to buy presents because gift-giving offers a powerful means to build stronger bonds with one's closest peers. At the same time, many dread the thought of buying gifts; they worry that their purchases will disappoint rather than delight the intended recipients.

词汇题强化练习3

Lady Carlotta stepped out on to the platform of the small wayside station and took a turn or two up and down its uninteresting length, to kill time till the train should be pleased to proceed on its way.

In line 2, "turn" most nearly means

- A) slight movement.
- B) change in rotation.
- C) short walk.
- D) course correction.

- A) a general guideline.
- B) a controlling force.
- C) an established habit.
- D) a procedural method.

词汇题强化练习4

Society is but the reflection of man himself, untempered by woman's thought; the hard iron rule we feel alike in the church, the state, and the home. No one need wonder at the disorganization, at the fragmentary condition of everything, when we remember that man, who represents but half a complete being, with but half an idea on every subject, has undertaken the absolute control of all sublunary matters.

词汇题强化练习5

The wind is still from the south, bearing us steadily northward at the speed of a trotting dog.

As used in line 1, “bearing” most nearly means

- A) carrying.
- B) affecting.
- C) yielding.
- D) enduring.

- A) demonstrations
- B) declarations
- C) revelations
- D) looks

词汇题强化练习6

Social support can broadly be defined as the perception of meaningful relationships that serve as a psychological resource during tough times. More specifically, this means emotional support, such as expressions of compassion, and may include access to information or other assistance. The researchers measured social support by giving out a questionnaire in which participants rated different statements (e.g. "I feel that there is no one I can share my most private worries and fears with.").

词汇题强化练习7

As used in line 7, "giving out" most nearly means

- A) distributing
- B) donating
- C) conferring
- D) sacrificing

Coined by Horace Walpole (1717-92) in a letter to Horace Mann (dated Jan. 28); he said he formed it from the Persian fairy tale "The Three Princes of Serendip," whose heroes "were always making discoveries, by accidents and sagacity, of things they were not in quest of." The name is from Serendip, an old name for Ceylon (modern Sri Lanka).
